IEEE Summer of Code - Code of Conduct

The IEEE Summer of Code is committed to fostering an inclusive, respectful, and harassment-free environment for all participants, including attendees, mentors, speakers, sponsors, and organizers. This Code of Conduct outlines our expectations for behavior and the consequences for unacceptable conduct.

Expected Behavior

- Be inclusive and respectful to all, regardless of background, identity, or experience level.
- Engage constructively in discussions, project work, and feedback sessions.
- Follow event guidelines for submissions, mentorship, and online/offline interactions.
- Credit others' work and uphold academic integrity (no plagiarism or unauthorized code use).
- Keep communication professional on GitHub, forums, and during sessions.

Zero Tolerance for Unacceptable Behavior

The following will not be tolerated:

- Harassment, discrimination, or intimidation in any form.
- Offensive comments related to personal identity or background.
- Disruptive or disrespectful behavior during sessions or discussions.
- Sharing or distributing inappropriate content (including NSFW material).
- Violating privacy, such as unauthorized sharing of personal information.
- Any form of cheating, plagiarism, or misrepresentation of contributions.

Reporting Violations

Report concerns immediately to organizers via:

- Email: ieee_cs@bmsit.in
- Private message to moderators on event platforms (e.g., Devfolio, 0xHacking, GitHub).

All reports are confidential. Retaliation against reporters is prohibited.

Consequences of Misconduct

Participants who violate this Code of Conduct may face:

- A warning and request to correct behavior.
- Removal from specific sessions or activities.
- Disqualification from the event and forfeiture of prizes.
- A permanent ban from future IEEE events, if warranted

Note: Any conflicts or disagreements will be addressed by the designated maintainers and/or the organizing team, whose decisions shall be considered final.
